JUNIOR GOLF PERFORMANCE PROGRAM STARTED AT QUAIL LODGE

Local Juniors to Gain New Golf Skills

July 11 – Carmel, CA – The Junior Performance Program, designed specifically for junior golfers, will instruct local players on competition golf.

Developed by Quail Lodge Golf Club's Director of Instruction Todd Southard, along with Karl Morgan and Rob Hayes, this program will teach the philosophy of golf and how to play and compete rather than just how to swing. Junior golfers will learn how to prepare for junior tournaments, junior high, high school, college and even professional golf.

The program, open to a limited number of juniors, will run six months at a time starting in August and run thru November, resuming in February and March.

Participants will meet twice a week, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 4:30 pm to 6 pm each day. Essentials elements that will be included are Swing Mechanics, Short Game, Equipment Evaluation, Golf Psychology, Course Management and many more.

The tuition to attend the program is $425 per month. Included in this cost is approximately 13 hours of instruction, along with all range and course fees. For more information, or to sign up for this limited space program contact Todd Southard at (831) 620-8808.
